(Attorney General McDaniel):

I'm Attorney General Dustin McDaniel.
And I believe a more informed consumer is a better-protected consumer. That's why I want to share these important tips on how to reduce your risk of credit card fraud:

- Examine your monthly statements.
- Challenge any unauthorized charges.
- Make sure your credit card number does not appear on your receipts.
- And scratch through any blank spaces
before signing a receipt.

For more tips on how to protect your credit and your identity, call the number on your screen or log-on to bestreetsmart.org.
